Figures of Speech

Sr. No.	Figure of Speech	Meaning	Example
1	Simile	A direct comparison between two different things using 'as' or 'like'.	As brave as a lion. / Her smile was like sunshine.
2	Metaphor	An implied comparison between two different things without using 'as' or 'like'.	Time is money. / The world is a stage.
3	Personification	Giving human qualities or actions to non-living things, animals or ideas.	The wind whispered through the trees.
4	Apostrophe	Directly addressing an absent person, a dead person, or a non-living/abstract thing as if it were alive and present.	O Death, where is thy sting?
5	Alliteration	Repetition of the same consonant sound at the beginning of two or more nearby words.	She sells sea shells on the sea shore.
6	Onomatopoeia	Use of a word whose sound imitates the sound of the thing it describes.	The bees buzz. / The bells jingle.
7	Hyperbole	A deliberate exaggeration used for emphasis, not meant to be taken literally.	I have told you a million times.
8	Oxymoron	A figure of speech in which two contradictory or opposite terms are combined together.	Deafening silence. / Sweet sorrow.
9	Irony	Use of words to express a meaning that is the opposite of the literal meaning.	A fire station burns down.
10	Pun	A play on words that have more than one meaning or sound alike, for a humorous or witty effect.	A bicycle can't stand on its own because it is two-tyred.
11	Antithesis	Placing two opposite or contrasting ideas together in a balanced way within a sentence.	Speech is silver, but silence is golden.
12	Climax	Arranging ideas or words in order of increasing importance or intensity.	He lost his wealth, his health and finally his life.
13	Anaphora (Repetition)	Deliberate repetition of a word or phrase at the beginning of successive clauses for emphasis.	Every day, every night, in every way, I am getting better.
14	Rhetorical Question	A question asked only for effect, or to make a point, with no answer expected.	Isn't it obvious what we must do?
15	Inversion	Reversing the normal (subject-verb) word order of a sentence for emphasis or poetic effect.	Never have I seen such courage.
16	Transferred Epithet	An adjective that logically describes one noun is transferred to another noun in the sentence.	He spent a sleepless night.
17	Exclamation	An expression that conveys strong or sudden emotion such as joy, surprise, sorrow or anger.	What a wonderful day it is!
