

Decent Coaching Classes

IX CBSE

Academic Conquest - II

ANSWER KEY

Subject: Social Science (Civics) — Chapter 6: Democracy

SECTION A — Multiple Choice Questions

- A1. (c) 26 January 1950
- A2. (b) Popular Sovereignty
- A3. (b) Article 368
- A4. (c) Direct Democracy
- A5. (b) 2005
- A6. (c) Media

SECTION B — Very Short Answer Questions

- A7. Universal Adult Franchise means that every citizen who is 18 years of age or above has the right to vote through a secret ballot, without any discrimination.
- A8. Any two of: Right to Equality; Right to Freedom; Right Against Exploitation; Right to Freedom of Religion; Cultural and Educational Rights; Right to Constitutional Remedies.
- A9. Rule of Law means that no one is above the law — every citizen is treated equally before the law, and disputes are resolved in a court of law through procedures established by law, not by force or personal influence.
- A10. The verse emphasises collective thinking, shared discussion, and unity of purpose. It shows that democratic values such as consultation, consensus, and shared responsibility have deep roots in India's intellectual and cultural traditions.
- A11. Any two of: Comptroller and Auditor General (CAG) — Transparency; Central Information Commission (CIC) — Transparency; Lokpal — Transparency; Central Vigilance Commission (CVC) — Transparency.

SECTION C — Short Answer Questions

- A12. Separation of Powers means dividing government functions among the legislature (makes laws), the executive (implements laws) and the judiciary (interprets laws), so that no single organ becomes too powerful. Example: While Parliament can amend the Constitution, the judiciary can review such amendments to ensure they are consistent with the spirit of the Constitution, and can declare a law unconstitutional if it violates constitutional provisions.
- A13. Direct Democracy: citizens directly participate in most decision-making processes; difficult to follow in large countries; e.g. Switzerland. Representative Democracy: people elect representatives who govern on their behalf through periodic elections, and the government is accountable to the people; e.g. India.
- A14. Any three of: A majority of Fundamental Rights were suspended; the press was censored; numerous political leaders and activists were arrested; democratic institutions came under severe strain; citizens' freedom was restricted.

SECTION D — Long Answer / Case-Based Question

- A15(a). It shows that democracy in India is not limited to elections alone — it functions at the grassroots level through active citizen participation in local self-government (Gram Panchayats), including participation of marginalised groups such as Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and women.
- A15(b). Article 243(d) of the Constitution provides not less than one-third (1/3) reservation for women in Panchayats (some states have raised this to 50%).
- A15(c). Any two of: it ensures inclusion of marginalised and vulnerable groups in decision-making; it makes governance more responsive to local needs (education, sanitation, health, livelihood); it builds accountability and transparency at the grassroots; it strengthens trust between citizens and local institutions.